CONSENT DECREE

Honorable Christina S. Snyder
 U.S. District Judge

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC” or “Commission”) and Defendant Del Taco, LLC (hereinafter “Defendant”) (Collectively “Parties”) hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree to resolve the Commission’s Complaint, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, et al. v. Del Taco, LLC, Case No. 5:18-cv-1978 CAS (SPX) (the “Action”). On September 17, 2018, the EEOC filed this Action in the United States District Court, Central District of California, for violations of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. (“Title VII”) alleging Defendant subjected the Charging Party, which is the Plaintiff-Intervenor in this case, and a class of similarly aggrieved individuals (Charging Party and class of similarly aggrieved individuals, collectively, the “Claimants”) to unlawful employment practices, including a sexually hostile work environment and/or retaliation in violation of §§703(a) and 704(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a), 2000e-3(a). Defendant denies, and continues to deny, that it has engaged in any alleged unlawful conduct.

II. PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE CONSENT DECREE

In the interest of resolving this matter, the Parties agree that this Action should be finally settled by entry of this Consent Decree (“Decree”). This Decree is made and entered by and between the EEOC and Defendant and shall be binding on and enforceable against Defendant and its parents, subsidiaries, officers, directors, agents, successors and assigns. Unless otherwise noted, the scope of this Decree is company-wide. The Parties have entered into this Decree for the following purposes:

- A. To provide appropriate monetary and injunctive relief;
- B. To ensure that Defendant’s practices comply with Title VII;
- C. To help ensure a work environment free from harassment and

1 retaliation;

2 D. To enhance training for Defendant's managers, supervisors, leads,
3 human resource and other employees with respect to their obligations and rights
4 under Title VII;

5 E. To review and, if necessary, update Defendant's policies, procedures,
6 and practices regarding employment discrimination, harassment, and retaliation;

7 F. To help provide an appropriate and effective mechanism for 8 receiving and handling discrimination, harassment and retaliation complaints in 9 the workplace;

10 G. To ensure appropriate record keeping, reporting, and monitoring; and 11 H. To avoid the time, expense, and uncertainty of further litigation.

12 III. RELEASE OF CLAIMS

13 The Parties agree that this Decree completely and finally resolves all 14 claims made in this Action. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to 15 preclude the EEOC from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that 16 Defendant fails to comply with the terms of this Decree. Nothing in this Decree
17 shall be construed to limit or reduce Defendant's obligation to comply fully with 18 Title VII or any other federal employment statute. This Decree in no way affects 19 the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate or litigate other charges that may 20 be in existence or may later arise against Defendant other than the claims
21 brought in this Action.

22 IV. JURISDICTION

23 The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this
24 Action. The Complaint asserts claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court
25 to grant the relief set forth in this Decree. The terms and provisions of this 26 Decree are fair, reasonable and just. This Decree conforms to the Federal Rules
27 of Civil Procedure and Title VII and does not derogate the rights or privileges of 28

1 any person. The entry of this Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and 2 be in the best interests of the Parties. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this
3 Action for the duration of the Decree for the purposes of entering all orders,
4 judgments and decrees that may be necessary to fully implement the relief
5 provided herein.

6 V. EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

7 The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective on the date
8 which this Decree is entered by the Court (“Effective Date”). Except as 9 otherwise provided herein, this Decree shall remain in effect for three (3) years
10 after the Effective Date.

11 VI. COMPLIANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

12 If the EEOC has reason to believe that Defendant has failed to comply
13 with any provision of this Decree, the EEOC may bring an action before this 14 Court to enforce the Decree. Before filing such an action, the EEOC shall notify 15 Defendant, in writing, of the provision(s) with which the EEOC believes
16 Defendant has violated or breached.

17 The EEOC may immediately initiate an enforcement action in this Court
18 for non-compliance related to non-payment of monies under this Decree. For 19 issues other than non-compliance related to non-payment of monies, Defendant
20 shall have thirty (30) days from the date of notice (“Dispute Resolution Period”)
21 to resolve or cure the breach absent a showing by the EEOC that the delay will 22 cause substantial harm. The parties may agree to extend this period upon mutual
23 consent. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts
24 to resolve any dispute raised by the EEOC. After the Dispute Resolution Period,
25 if the Parties have not reached a resolution or agreement to extend the time
26 further, the EEOC may petition this Court for resolution of the dispute.

27 Should the Court determine that Defendant has not complied with this 28

Decree, in whole or in part, it may impose all available relief, including but not limited to, an extension of the term of the Decree and payment of the EEOC's costs and attorneys' fees incurred in securing compliance with the Decree.

VII. MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

This Decree constitutes the complete understanding of the Parties with respect to the matters contained herein. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each Party.

If one or more provisions of this Decree are rendered unlawful or unenforceable, the Parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon the appropriate amendments to this Decree necessary to effectuate its purposes. If the Parties are unable to reach agreement, the Court shall order the appropriate alternative provisions necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. Should one or more provisions of this Decree be deemed unlawful, all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

By mutual agreement of the Parties, subject to the Court's approval, this Decree may be amended or modified in the interests of justice and fairness in order to effectuate the provisions herein.

In settlement of this lawsuit, Defendant shall pay a total of $1,250,000.00 ("Total Settlement Amount") in monetary relief. The EEOC has full and complete discretion under the terms of the Decree to determine who is entitled to monetary relief, the amount, and the characterization of such payment, if any, to the Claimants. If the Claims Administrator initially appointed thereafter declines to serve or to carry out its duties under this Decree, Defendant shall have five (5) business days to notify the EEOC in writing of the need for a replacement Claims Administrator. EEOC shall provide Defendant with three (3) new Claims Administrators from which Defendant shall select a replacement. 12 Administrator shall:

13 i. research such Potential Claimant's most-recent

23 address is located by the EEOC, the Claims Administrator shall re-mail the 24 Notice Letter in accordance with this section within ten (10) days of receipt of the new address from the EEOC.

25 f. Any Potential Claimant whose Notice Letter was re-

4 At thirty (30) day intervals after sending the first Notice Letters, the Claims
5 Administrator shall provide the EEOC electronic access to the questionnaires
6 filed on-line. The Claims Administrator shall provide the EEOC with a copy of 7 the questionnaires submitted by mail in the event a Potential Claimant is unable
8 to submit an on-line questionnaire. Defendant shall ensure that the Claims

15 List. The EEOC's Distribution List shall detail the amount to be designated to 16 each Eligible Claimant, the characterization of the monies to be paid, the 17 address, and other appropriate information. For monetary relief characterized as 18 back pay, Defendant shall pay the employer's portion of all deductions required
19 by law, including but not limited to FICA and FUTA taxes, and such amounts 20 shall not be deducted from payment of the monetary settlement amounts to the 21 Identified Claimants. In addition, the Claims Administrator, as appropriate, shall 22 prepare and distribute an IRS form 1099 or equivalent tax reporting forms to the

3 the address provided by the EEOC in its Distribution List(s).

4 Within five (5) business days of mailing the aforementioned payments, the 5 Claims Administrator shall submit copies of the checks and any related 6 correspondence as well as a report regarding the mailing of the checks to the 7 EEOC. If any such check is returned, known to be lost or destroyed, or not 8 cashed within 180 days, the Claims Administrator shall notify the EEOC within 9 ten (10) business days of gaining such knowledge, and the EEOC shall attempt
10 to obtain the information necessary to deliver reissued checks, which the Claims
11 Administrator shall re-mail within five (5) business days of obtaining updated
12 information from the EEOC. In the alternative, the Claims Administrator or the 13 Defendant can provide a rolling report on a quarterly basis from the first 14 distribution until the Funds have all been disbursed as set forth below.

15 The Claims Administrator shall prepare and distribute W-2 and 1099
16 reporting forms to each Eligible Claimant and shall make any appropriate reports
17 for each to the Internal Revenue Service and other tax authorities. Defendant
18 shall be solely responsible for any costs associated with issuing and distributing

20 issuance of any W-2 or 1099 form, the Claims Administrator shall provide a

2 was rendered, including providing a copy of the canceled check.

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT AND CONSENT DECREE

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES OF DEL TACO, LLC

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Central District of California against Del Taco, LLC, Case Number 5:18-cv-1978 CAS (SPX). EEOC filed this lawsuit alleging that employees were subjected to a sexually hostile work environment, and/ or subjected to retaliation for opposing the hostile work environment. Del Taco, LLC settled the case by entering into a "Consent Decree" with EEOC and paying $1.25 million in monetary relief to victims identified by the EEOC. Del Taco has further agreed to various injunctive remedies such as revising policies and procedures regarding sexual harassment prevention, training employees regarding sexual harassment, creating a system for tracking complaints, and providing EEOC with periodic reports.

Under the Consent Decree, employees are being given notice that any violations of Del Taco, LLC's policies against harassment and discrimination will be thoroughly investigated. Individuals found to have violated that policy will be subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. All employees will undergo training to recognize and prevent unlawful sexual harassment and retaliation towards employees.

Del Taco will appoint an Equal Employment Opportunity Monitor ("EEO Monitor") to ensure Del Taco's compliance with the Decree, to oversee investigation and resolution of all reports of sexual harassment and retaliation, and to ensure equal opportunity for all employees. If any employee has information regarding harassment or retaliation, she or he may report it directly to the EEO Monitor.

Federal law prohibits harassment or discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of a person's age, disability, race, sex, color, religion or national origin, with respect to hiring, compensation, promotions, discharge, terms and conditions or privileges of employment. Federal law also prohibits retaliation for those who oppose or resist harassment or discrimination or participate in investigations regarding complaints of discrimination.

Del Taco, LLC is committed to complying with federal anti-discrimination laws in all respects. Sex harassment or discrimination will not be tolerated. Any employee who files a complaint or formal charge of discrimination, gives testimony or assistance, or participation in any manner in any investigation will be protected from retaliation.

If you believe that you have been sexually harassed, discriminated against because of your sex, national origin, age, race, color, religion, or disability, you may follow Del Taco, LLC's procedures and/or you may seek assistance from:
